BUSINESS ENVELOPES .- THE NEWS Job Office is now prepared to furnish good envelopes, with business cards printed thereon, at $4 per thousand. Send your orders. Every merchant and business wan should have his card printed on

THE GREAT CHICKEN DISPUTE-Newberry and Columbia vs. Edgefield and Augusta-in Columbia, last week, ended in the victory of the former. Seventeen cocks were shown and fifteen matched. The battles were even-seven and seven-but the Newberry chicken, which once before decided a main, succeeded in placing his opponent hors du combat. The fights were for $100, and $1000 to $750 on the odd.

MONEY FOUND .- Friday morning a colored man named Robert Hamilton picked up a large roll of money in the market, which was soon after claimed by J. Weston, as the $41 just lost by him. The finder refused to deliver the money, denying that the ownership had been proved and declining to tell how much it amounted to. He was arrested and taken to the Guardhouse, where the sum of $31 and some cents was found upon his person. The case came up before the Mayor, who referred the parties to a trial justice.

PERSONAL.—The many friends of our young townsman, Dr. George W. Winkler, will be gratified to learn that he has succeeded to the business of Dr. S. G. Holland, the eminent dentist, of Augusta, Ga. Dr. Holland, having made a fortune, retires from practice. In a card announcing his retirement, he says of his successor :

Dr. Winkler has received as fine a dental education as this country affords, and I take great pleasure in recommending him to my patrons as an operator in whom I have the utmost confidence. I will remain for a time with the Doctor, and would like to introduce him to my patrons.

SAVANNAH DRY DOCK .- This large and useful structure, which was commenced by Messrs. Jones & Usina, in 1869, is rapidly approaching completion, and it is said will cost $250,000. It is 350 feet long; width at bottom 45 feet; at top 80 feet; depth 18 feet. The water will be removed by one of Lebby & Duc's rotary steam pumps. the invention of Mr. N. Lebby, of Charleston. This pump is capable of discharging 20,000 gallons per minute. The builder, Francis Marion Jones, is a native of Charleston, a man of untiring industry and great mechanical skill.

THE ADGER LINE.-The favorite steamship James Adger, Captain T. J. Lockwood, now in splendid condition, left this city on Saturday last for New York with a heavy passenger list-over one hundred in number-and a large freight, among the prominent items in which are near 3000 packages of Charleston vegetables, shipped by our farmers and truck dealers from the abundant crops realized by them during this season. The rush of passengers for the Adger Line keeps up in surprising volume, and is an evidence of the universal satisfaction given by these first-class steamers.

A HARD SET .- Joe Williams, Edward Swee ney, Jim Bingley, Jesse Nash, Michael Randall, James McQueen, Thomas Banks, Robert Wickels and William Fowler, seven members of a thieving fraternity, captured by the detective force in a descent on a house in Warren street, were brought before Trial Justice Schroder, Saturday afternoon. for examination. The evidence showed them to be suspicious characters, and all of them more or less implicated in recent robberies. The five first were sent to jail for thirty days as vagrants, and the two latter were discharged upon giving security for their good behavior.

CLUBS AND STARS .- John Greene, arrested for raising a disturbanc sentencea to pay a fine of $5 or go to the House of Correction for five days.

Frank Broomer, with no local habitation or visible means of support, was sent to the House of Correction for thirty days as a vagrant. Ellen Maxwell, taken up for being drunk and disorderly, and indecent behavior, in St. Philip street, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or spend twenty days in the House of Correction. A bulky individual, found in a somnolent drunken state, on the sidewalk in St. Philip street, was brought to the Guardhouse in the citr' wagon, and was allowed to depart next morning after paying a V for his ride. A white man, who, under alcoholic influences, was unable to take proper care of himself, was lodged in the Guardhouse and discharged on the plea of the first offence.

THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION. Third Day's Proceedings,

At the opening of the convention on Saturday, resolutions were adopted thanking Mr. T. P. Eiford for his efficient and gratuitous services as treasurer of the convention for the last ten years; also, providing for the systematic collection of offerings in the several parishes in behalf of diocesan missions, and for the publication quarterly in the Mouthly Record of the amount of such All canons, rules of order and standing resotions were referred to the committee on the constitution and canons to report at the next meeting of the convention. Mr. John Hanckel reported the board of managers of the Advancement Society, elected at the ast meeting. The names have been already published In THE NEWS. The Rev. A. Toomer Porter offered a preamble and resolutions, pledging the convention to increased activity in the work of missions and church extension; calling upon the boards of nissions for this diocese for a detailed tatement of the indebtedness of any parish, and neans and plans for the settlement of the same. Second, for information in regard to parishes desiring aid for rebuilding, enlarging or erecting new churches or parsonages. Third, the board of nission was requested to devise some plan by which their needs might be supplied. Fourth enjoining upon parishes to provide parsonages. Fifth, recommending the concentration of effort upon one point until that is relieved, then upon another, and so on.

for that purpose. THE FIREMENS' TOURNAMENT. -The parade on the 17th instant promises to be one of the most imposing that has been witnessed for a long series of years. The various steam fire companies have been preparing in earnest, and the nightly trials of speed and distance which are to be noticed in several public streets of the city indicate an exciting contest for the handsome prizes of-fered. These have been put on exhibition at the establishment of Mr. Hayden, corner of Hasel and King streets, and are as follows: First City Prize-Silver core tal stand, and a fine black coat, to be made to order in No. 1 style at the clothing and talloring establishment of Mr. Win. Matthlessen, by whom it has been tendered. It is to be given 10 any member of the successful company who shall be hamed by the president. Second City Prize—A wine set, four gobiets, silver pitcher and wash bowl. Third City Prize—offered by the Pioneer Steam Fire Engine Company—A silver goblet, to be given to the company which gets off the ground first.

Prizes for Visiting Companies—Water pitcher, two gablets, waiter and wash bowl. All of the above prizes, save in the instance of the one given by the Piencer, are to be awarded for speed in getting to work. These to be awarded for distance in playing have not been selected vet.

Attend diligently to your business, advertise systematically, judiciously and constantly, and treat your castomers well. By attending to these cardinal principles, success, with wealth and fame, will certainly be your portion. We have a signal instance of this sort in our city. A few years ago, Mr. Scott commenced in a small way his Star Shirt Emporium-with a keen apreciation of the virtue of printers ink. He has spent thousands in advertising-but it has proved a good investment. His name now resounds all over the State, and his shirts are in great request. We know of no merchant who more carefully studies the wants of the public; and as a matter of course, a grateful public in return calls on its purveyor, Mr. Scott, whenever shirts, drawers, undervests, neck ties, or any thing else is wanted in the line of furnishing
